What is JSAC's address?

JSAC is located at 66 South Main Street in Ocean Grove, NJ

What time do doors open?

We will open the outside doors to the lobby by 6:45 PM. Doors for the Palaia Theater will open at 7:30 PM. Seating is reserved for Season Subscription holders. All other seating is General Admission.

Is there parking on site?

Yes, JSAC has free parking available on site and within walking distance of multiple restaurants. (See below.) If you turn on to Main Avenue from Main Street (Rte. 71), turn right at the first driveway to access the lot on the northern side of the building. If that lot is full, there is additional parking on the southern side of the building. Simply turn right on the first street past the building (Lawrence Avenue) and then turn right again at the driveway just past the back of the building to access the south side lot. If both lots are full, free on-street parking is available in the area around JSAC.

Are there restaurants nearby?

There are many great places to eat in Ocean Grove and neighboring Asbury Park, which is just a block away from the theater. Those coming in from the south and west will also pass through Neptune and/or Bradley Beach - both of which offer a variety of options, as well.

What is Musicians On A Mission and how can I help?

Musicians On A Mission is a non-profit organization dedicated to creating connection and inspiring giving through music. MOAM will be on hand for all shows in the series, collecting non-perishable food, personal care items, and cash donations to benefit Fulfill (formerly the Food Bank of Monmouth & Ocean County). Concertgoers that visit the MOAM table in the lobby before the show, or during intermission, can learn more about Fulfill's mission and enter a drawing to win items donated by the artists, 90.5 The Night, and local businesses.
